

Fire Marshal - Basic firefighting

Course includes:

Certificate valid 3 years

Duration of the course:

You work in your own time and it should not take longer than 8 hours

Course contents:

- What is a fire?
- Definition of fire
- Three elements needed to have a fire
- Classes of fires
- Loadshedding and lithium battery fires
 - Fire safety with loadshedding
 - How water reacts with Lithium.
 - How Lithium fires differ from traditional fires
 - Differences between lithium-ion and lithium iron phosphate batteries
 - Extinguishing a lithium battery fire
 - Safe use and storage of lithium batteries
- Methods of Fire extinguishing
- Types of extinguishers
- Dangers of certain type of extinguishers
- How to check a fire extinguisher
- Monthly checklists
- How to use a fire extinguisher
- Remember these fire fighting tips:
- Rules for the safe use of fire extinguishers
- After use requirements
- What all Employees should know
- Electrical safety
- What all Employees should know – workplace evacuation plan
- Requirements for the Distribution Boards (DB)
- Basic understanding of the growth and spread of fire
- What to do if your clothing catch on fire
- Fire prevention in the Workplace
- Fire safety at home
- Fire Prevention at home